SOME SENATORS WHO THINK WE HAVE ENOUGH OF HIM.

And That His Lines Are Cast in Luxurious Places—A Matter That Is None of Uncle Sam's Business—Labor Legislation—Herald for Confederate Vets.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 30.—The Senate today took a military bill and was quite lively for a time when Logan and Plumb had a little breeze. The former is the champion of the pending bill to increase the army to 40,000 enlisted men. Plumb, on the other hand, is a decided opponent. In fact, declared in his speech that the people of the United States, with their self-control and enlightened habits, needed no army at all, while there were enough soldiers to take care of the Indians. He would like to see the laborers of the country earning 5,000 to the soldiers at $1,000 per annum per head. He said we had enough military force and that the country was a good deal of a military camp. Logan's speech was denigratory and Plumb said he could stand it.

The Senate had a long session and the House took up the bill for the relief of the soldiers. The House passed the bill by a vote of 100 to 90. The Senate will take it up tomorrow.

Over the Government a Balance.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 30.—The Supreme Court of the United States has affirmed the judgment of the Circuit Court of the District of Columbia in the case of the United States vs. the United States, growing out of charges made by the railroad for transporting the mails and government employees accompanying them, and on the part of the government in reference to the claim for 5 per cent. of the amount of the earnings of the road under the act of 1862. The court of claims decided that the railroad company was entitled to 5 per cent. of the earnings of the road, and that the United States was liable to recover $4,875,000, and gave judgment in favor of the United States for the difference, $1,237,650.

Opposed to This Kind of Legislation.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 30.—The House committee on labor met Monday to discuss the bill for the relief of the soldiers. The committee is opposed to the bill, and has decided to report it unfavorably. The bill is for the relief of the soldiers who were discharged from the army in 1864, and who are now in need of money. The bill provides that they shall receive 5 per cent. of the amount of the earnings of the road under the act of 1862. The committee is opposed to the bill, and has decided to report it unfavorably.

CONDENSED NEWS.

President Cleveland has signed the bill granting $2,000 per annum pension to Mrs. Gen. Hancock.

The Senate of Massachusetts is packed with the States of Massachusetts, Ohio, and Illinois. The bill is for the relief of the soldiers who were discharged from the army in 1864, and who are now in need of money. The bill provides that they shall receive 5 per cent. of the amount of the earnings of the road under the act of 1862.

Artificial Limbs for "Confeds."

Washington City, March 30.—Among the documents laid before the Senate Monday was the memorial of the Confederate Veterans, asking the restriction of Chinese immigration. The bill is for the relief of the soldiers who were discharged from the army in 1864, and who are now in need of money. The bill provides that they shall receive 5 per cent. of the amount of the earnings of the road under the act of 1862.

The House passed the bill by a vote of 100 to 90. The Senate will take it up tomorrow.

Nothing to Do with the Case.

O'Hara's Resolution and Reagan's Ground of Objection.

WASHINGTON CITY, March 30.—O'Hara tried to get the late massacre in Mississippi before the House Monday by the introduction of a resolution, the preamble of which recited the published facts of the killing of a number of citizens of the United States at Carrollton, Miss.; the allegation that the governor of the state has refused to take such measures as would bring the murderers to justice, and that the constitution of the United States guarantees to all its citizens protection of life and property; therefore to:

BRUSSELS, March 30.—A fresh light is reported to have occurred between the rioters and the infantry at Carriers in which two of the rioters were killed and many wounded. The strike has extended to the cloth factories at Verviers, where troops were sent at once. The rioters, to whose agitation the strikes were due, are enraged at the show of military resistance and threaten to sack the cloth factories. A conflict with the civic guard Monday. Soldiers of the former were killed and a large number wounded. The rioters at Borinage, whose wages are 30 pence per day, and whose working day is limited to five hours, are preparing to strike. The strikes are spreading rapidly throughout the country, the riot being incited to revolt and violence by French and German socialists. GLoucester, March 30.—The house of commons Monday evening went into committee on the Crofters' bill. WILLOW-TIT-WILLOW.
A merchant came in a desolate state. "Willow, tit-willow, tit-willow!" I said to him, "Why are you crying the three singing Willow, tit-willow, tit-willow?" —G. A. Shurtliff has been moving his ice cream and candy fixtures into his rooms at the rear of Skinner's restaurant on Main Street.

—The Maroons who play here Friday and Saturday of this week defeated the Chicagoans in two games at Menominee, 3 to 0, and 3 to 1. They are evidently a strong team.
—A part of the drift wood that has accumulated at the upper bridge during the past few days was partially removed this morning and what remained was put in a position to cause no further trouble.

—The high water this afternoon at the lower power, broke over the railway, and washed away two or three rods of the embankment. The water has been shut off, and the work of repairing is now progressing.

—There has been some talk among prominent church members about having another revival here. One well known gentleman has promised to contribute twenty-five dollars if Sam Jones can be induced to hold a series of meetings here.

—Mrs. Ann Taggart, for thirty-five years a resident of Beloit, and mother of Mayor Alfred Taggart, of Rockford, Ill., died Sunday in the 90th year of her age. Her remains will be taken to Rockford for interment.

—Fred C. Burpee is now in Los Angeles, California, and to-day while people in Janesville are throwing snow balls to keep themselves warm, he is in a locality where the weather clerk never makes any such mistakes as he does here.

—The campaign this year seems to be lacking in two or three very essential things. For instance it shows a very unusual state of affairs when democratic orators are so scarce that one of our hardware firms is obliged to send clear to Chicago for a gas engine.

—It is reported that Rev. Walter A. Brane has been offered the pastorate of a prominent Congregational church in Chicago, at a salary of $25,000 a year. The absence of Mr. Brane from the city makes it impossible for us to ascertain the truth of the rumor—Chronicle. It is just possible but we hardly think it.

—This morning a number of the members of the Salvation Army took the seven o'clock train for Chicago. The Army is now holding a grand reunion in that city, several thousand members being present, and it is expected that the torchlight procession which will take place to-night or to-morrow night will be a grand affair.

—John Dickson, a 24-year old Rockford boy, was arrested on Monday for burglary and larceny. Of late several stores have been robbed and money stolen therefrom. —The publishers of the Commercial Union have issued the fourth annual edition of their Advertiser Reporter. It is a neatly bound volume of about three hundred pages, full of valuable information for publishers, and something that should be found in every newspaper office throughout the country. It contains the financial and credit ratings of all the principal advertisers in the United States and Canada, the laws of limitation of contracts in each state, and much other matter of use to those making contracts for advertising, being in fact indispensable to the live newspaper man of these times.

—Attention is called to the spring announcement in this issue of J. S. Sutherland & Sons. This old and reliable house is a credit to the city, and their stock is unusually large and attractive this spring, embracing not only an extensive line of books, but also a stock of wall paper, centers, borders, ceiling decorations, curtains, tassels, moldings and pictures, not excelled in metropolitan cities. Their picture frame department is under their own supervision and they make to order any style of frames on short notice. There is no occasion for going out of the city for anything in the line of books, stationery, or the great variety of goods handled by this popular house, which has long since established a reputation for good goods at satisfactory prices. Call and examine their stock.

—Mr. and Mrs. Skelly will share the sympathy of the entire community in their hours of deep bereavement.
The funeral will occur at the house, Thursday at 2 o'clock p. m.

Mrs. Theodore Ballou, who has been sick for some time with pneumonia, closed her eyes in death. A few days ago she was thought almost out of danger by the doctors, but on Saturday night she was attacked by a severe chill, and from then until the time of her death she failed steadily. Mrs. Ballou was a woman who was highly esteemed among all her acquaintances. Several years ago her husband was killed in an accident on the Chicago & Northwestern road, and since then she has lived entirely for her two children, who, although too young to appreciate their great loss, will in future years have ample reason to remember with gratitude their mother's earnest efforts to benefit them. Her death, which took place at her late home in the second ward, will be regretted by all who knew her.

—The time of the funeral has not yet been decided upon, but will be announced later.

—The Recorder of the morning contains the following plan of ignorance, which is irreparable even from a democratic standpoint:
"If our understanding of the matter is correct, the voters of Janesville will have to meet the issue of high or low license election on the 30th of September. The common council failed to declare the result of that ballot, owing to certain informalities involved on the part of the county voters. It would be well enough for the common council to declare the result of that ballot, and to permit the voters to vote on the 30th of September. The Recorder knows as well as does every intelligent voter, that the failure of a democratic council to declare the result of the license election, in no way affects the expressed desire of a majority of the voters, at that election, which placed the license for the next three years at $200.

—The Recorder and every intelligent voter understands another factually as well, namely, that without an election the license by state law is fixed at not less than $200, the same as adopted by a vote of the people of this city. The license question is no longer a factor in city politics and the Recorder's attempt at misrepresentation is too transparent.

OBITUARY.
FLORENCE NELLIE BARKLEY.
The silent messenger, whose tread is so frequently unheeded, and yet whose presence means the sundering of earthly ties, entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Skelly, at eleven o'clock last night, and claimed the spirit of little Florence, leaving the home shrouded in mourning and deep bereavement. Florence was born the 15th of January, 1880. For the past two years she has been a patient sufferer from an incurable disease which so emaciated her little form as to render her almost helpless, and a constant care to the loving parents, who watched over her with deep solicitude. During all the weary months of suffering her mind was clear and unusually active. She was possessed of a wonderful memory and her constant desire to make home cheerful and pleasant won the sympathy of many friends and the purest affection of the family circle. Florence will be missed from the home in a peculiar sense, because of her constant presence and devoted attachment to the loved ones who watched over her. The comforting thought that comes like a benediction to aching hearts, is, that in the home of God the tired spirit finds a haven of rest. Looking out beyond the bounds of time the light of imagination and the eye of faith alone are necessary to realize that little Florence roams to-day in the home of God, and over the silver moments of the "city of gold" like a butterfly, there comes back the echo, "Home at last, sweet, sweet home."

—Mr. and Mrs. Skelly will share the sympathy of the entire community in their hours of deep bereavement.
The funeral will occur at the house, Thursday at 2 o'clock p. m.

Mrs. Theodore Ballou, who has been sick for some time with pneumonia, closed her eyes in death. A few days ago she was thought almost out of danger by the doctors, but on Saturday night she was attacked by a severe chill, and from then until the time of her death she failed steadily. Mrs. Ballou was a woman who was highly esteemed among all her acquaintances. Several years ago her husband was killed in an accident on the Chicago & Northwestern road, and since then she has lived entirely for her two children, who, although too young to appreciate their great loss, will in future years have ample reason to remember with gratitude their mother's earnest efforts to benefit them. Her death, which took place at her late home in the second ward, will be regretted by all who knew her.

—The time of the funeral has not yet been decided upon, but will be announced later.

—The Recorder of the morning contains the following plan of ignorance, which is irreparable even from a democratic standpoint:
"If our understanding of the matter is correct, the voters of Janesville will have to meet the issue of high or low license election on the 30th of September. TOBACCO.
A Lively Week among the Dealers.
The Western Farmer takes a different view of the acreage question than that of nearly all the other journals and in the last week's issue publishes the following: "Among three or four dozen growers we have found but two who have decided to raise a less area of the crop than last season, and they will put in an acre or two of broom corn, and that much less of tobacco. One large grower who has 25 acres, unused, is getting ready for 30 acres for '88."

—The delegates sent to Washington by the tobacco growers have returned, and say that although congress has as yet done nothing definite in regard to the Smoot tariff, they expect the matter to be soon settled. It is expected that the bill as it will pass will make the tariff seventy-five cents on all imported tobacco of a size and texture suitable for wrappers. This will afford much relief to the planters even though it does not exactly suit a few Havana tobacco raisers.

NEW YORK.
The market varied little or none from that of the previous week. Dealers and packers have turned their greatest attention to the new crop, and, expecting a Wisconsin buying of $5 tobacco is going on briskly in the tobacco growing sections. The prices that are being paid leave a hope for profit to the investors; here and there one hour of the paying of 20c for fine crops, but the average is from 10 to 12c.

—The market has been moderately active the past week, as much so probably as the rough weather and variable winds would admit. The buyers are as numerous as ever here, and a few additional ones are added to the list of last week. The sales that have taken place range in price the same as last week, from 8 to 10 cents, with possibly an occasional lot at a little above the latter figure. The lots that run above 10 cents, however, are always given out as p. m.—Baltimore Herald.
